Prayerful Reading (lectio)
Of an Artistic Rendering
Seeing with the eyes of the Heart

EASTER/PASCHA

We thank and praise you,
O Christ for the gift of victory over death, for the gift of holy awe that comes upon us
as we enter into our Easter joy.
You have passed from death to life,
as our way through the desert,
our food and drink as we thirst.
You are our safe passage thru treacherous waters and the home that awaits us
at the end of our journeys.
In our doubts and pressures of our busy lives
we seem to lose you.
Help us remember that you are always with us and that your way is always before us.
We have only to pay attention
to hear you call us by name.
Teach us to recognize you
in one another and with deep gratitude continue to bear witness to the life and hope with which you sustain the world.
Amen. Alleluia.
Christ is Risen!
Truly He is Risen!

Ask yourself:

What does this painting say to me?

What feeling or thought or word
does it evoke?

What do I want to say to God
through this painting?

What do I believe is God's message
for me today
as I reflect and listen?

What grace am I being given?

My prayers rise like incense
Before You O Holy One
Christ is Risen
Truly He is Risen Alleluia
